13 Questions:

1) My best memory:

When I got the acceptance letter from the prestigious Saint Augustine high school.

2) Favorite and most important teacher and why:

My favorite and most important teacher was, by far, my fifth grade teacher, Mr. Mendiola. He taught me that, no matter what, you should try as hard as you can in school, but always relax every now and then and the rest will come.

3) I believe

I believe in myself and others who feel a very large passion for succeeding and getting the job done.

4) Whenever I have a problem I:

Whenever I have a problem I always look back at it from a different point of view to see what I can change to improve at what needs help; and I am never afraid to ask an adult for help.

5) My strength comes from:

My strength comes from wanting to be successful, like the people in my family, from my wonderful mom and dad to my lovely aunt Aldrica.

6) My favorite book is:

My favorite book is called "Warriors Don't Cry" by Melba Patillo Beals. It is an autobiography about a girl who helped integrate an all white school in 1952 with eight other black students. It talks about her struggles and what it was like to be black in a all white community.

7) My favorite movie is:

12 Years a Slave, hands down.

8) I am inspired by:

My aunt Aldrica because she is a very intelligent business woman who is very successful and probably taught me everything I know with her stellar work ethic.

9) I am grateful for:

I am grateful for my wonderful family; any kid, to have a family like mine, is very lucky.

10) My message for older people is:

My message is to stop stressing and look at all the possible outcomes to your problem before losing your mind.

11) Best advice I ever received was what and from who:

Best advice I received was from my dad who always tells me that schoolwork is more important than anything else I could do (with some exceptions).

12) I am a leader because:

I am a leader because I do what I need to and what I think is right to be successful.

13) Knowledge is important because:

Knowledge is important because you can't go anywhere without it; everywhere you go will need you to apply simple skills that you learn through education.
